Harold Bauer Will be Heard at Opera House Tomorrow Night

Harold Bauer, world-famed pianist, who will be heard at the Opera House tomorrow night.

Harold Bauer's genius as an interpreter—and not, as one critic puts it, "merely as a speaking tube"—is largely responsible for his fame as a pianist. He has the gift of placing himself in the position of those whose moods and emotions he musically pictures. "In Schumann's 'Carnival,'" declared the writer of a recent criticism, "Bauer was among the maskers, and knew the story of each one. He was an oriental when he played 'Isamey' of Baladirew. With Bach, Scarlatti and Gluck he lived in the past century. He dreamed of Poland with Chopin; he sat with Brahms and heard Paganini. With Tchaikowsky, he was melancholy; while when playing the mythical Prelude, Choral and Fugue of Caesar Frank, he was a celebrant before the altar."

Bauer is an Englishman of German descent. He first took up the study of the violin, but upon the advice of Paderewski, concentrated his attention upon the piano. He has toured England, Norway, Germany, Spain, France, The Netherlands, Austria, Russia, Sweden and America. To this country he has come seven times under London Charlton's direction.

Mr. Bauer will be heard at the Royal Hawaiian opera house tomorrow evening, and has arranged the following splendid program:

Mendelssohn—Prelude and Fugue in E Minor.
Schumann—Two Abends (At Evening); Aufschwung (Ecstasy); Warum (Why?); In der Nacht (In the Night).
Alkan—Sonata in B Minor.

Allegro, Scherzo, Adagio, Presto.
Beethoven.....Minuet in B Flat
Liszt.....Etude in D Flat
Schubert.....Impromptu in A Flat
Saint-Saens.....Etude en forme de Valse

CHANG TSO FAN TELLS OF ESCAPE IN LETTER TO SECRETARY THAYER

Territorial Secretary Wade Warren Thayer is in receipt of a letter from former Chinese Consul Chang Tso Fan who, it will be remembered, was reported some time ago to have been captured and to be held for ransom in China. Mr. Thayer, who was then the acting governor of the territory, and George R. Barton had interested themselves in the welfare of the well-known Chinese, and had cabled to China concerning the alleged arrest of Chang Tso Fan.

The letter states that Chang was in great danger for a time, and that it was owing to his foreign friends and the earnest representations of Mr. Thayer that he escaped with his life. The late consul to Honolulu was released from custody on November 18. His letter to from Footing and is dated March 28.

The Republican Territorial Central Committee has decided to hold precinct club nominations Thursday, June 4. Nominations will be made for offices in the clubs and for delegates to the next party convention.
